

I oppose this FCC ruling, you are taking away the soul of music and now I will be forced to listen to even less radio than I have before. All that some people have is music, now they have no choice. WRONG, WRONG, WRONG, you should feel ashamed of yourselves, but I guess it's just easier to sell out to big buisness.